If I ever have an event, you are the one person I would not invite to come as the keynote speaker.

Oh, I'll surprise you alright. Sorry, not trying to make you think below pay grade, but you didn't like the sprouts. :( They were just trying to be healthy veggies. No need to hate.

Sincerely,
Jessica

I wasn't being defensive earlier. It pisses me off that you said that. I was explaining what happened. Right now, I really don't care anymore. You don't, why should I? But don't call me out on things that aren't true.

Sincerely,
Jessica
